Modern Fashions Mix With Treasured Mememtos In Show

Rare and lovely things from foreign lands were on exhibit when the International Women's club gave a fashion show last Thursday at the Bettie Thomas studios. Casual clothes as modern as tomorrow's fashion magazine were shown by models from the club. The dresses were all provided by Joyce's shop.

PRACTICAL BUT CHIC . . . Cynthia Cousins, formerly of Alberta, Canada, models a brown printed cotton with a gleaming finish. Margaret Staniland, formerly of London, England, seated, wears a sheath jumper of charcoal brown. These fashions were shown at the International Women's club fashion show recently. Both dresses are from Joyce's Dress shop.

On display were various treasured mementos contributed by the members. Among these were: Bavarian china cups from Germany, brought by Mrs. Jackie Garvin; a tea cozy and drinking mugs from England, belonging to Mrs. Jack Manners; a cuckoo clock and Rosenthal china dog from Germany, contributed by Mrs. Thomas Clinkenbeard; and dolls from Switzerland and Korea, brought by Mrs. Leo Whitesell.

Models In Show
The models for the clothes which reflected the foreign influence were: Mrs. Thomas Clinkenbeard from Germany; Mrs. Herb Cousins from Canada; Mrs. Edward Kalina from Germany; Mrs. Jack Manners from England; Mrs. Betty Rogers of the United States; Mrs. Margaret Staniland from England; Mrs. Jerry Tittle of the United States; Mrs. Leo Whitesell from Germany; and Mrs. Harold Wilberg from Estonia.

The show was under the supervision of Mrs. Thomas Clinkenbeard and Mrs. Frank

Y-Wives Study Watercolor and Dancing

A new perspective is available for participants in the current Y-Wives watercolor and drawing class. At the last meeting, Janet Shedd instructed the women in composition. A still life floral arrangement was executed in water colors according to the individual taste.

This class will meet again Tuesday, September 6, 9:30 a.m., at the YWCA, 2330 West Carson, and meets alternate Tuesdays.

The need for exercise is being filled every other Tuesday at the ballet, modern dance, and exercise class conducted by Miss Anne Douglas. After the class September 13, a hat exchange sale will be held. The public wishing information may call Mrs. Warren T. Randall, president of Y-Wives, or the YWCA for further information.

Child care is available.

Makolandra, president of the organization.

International dishes such as a mussel torte made by Mrs. Danny Lewant; a Russian salad made by Mrs. Harold Wilberg; sausage rolls brought by Mrs. Jack Manners; and a kugelhopf, a kind of German coffee cake, made by Mrs. Jackie Garvin were served.

FORMAL WEDDING . . . Miss Beverly Dinsmore became the bride of Arthur Olmeda Saturday, August 20, at the Nativity Catholic church. The reception was held at the YWCA, following the ceremony.

Beverly Dinsmore Is Vision In Lace

"Happy the bride the sun shines on," so goes the ancient saying. The sun was doing its traditional best when Miss Beverly Glenna Dean Dinsmore became the bride of Arthur Anthony Olmeda, Saturday afternoon, August 20, at the Nativity Catholic church.

The bride wore an original Mendicino gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The lace which formed the bodice of the dress fell in panels, separated by froths of tulle, widening into a sweep train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a pearl-encrusted lace bandeau. She carried a bouquet of white orchids set in a circle of lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dinsmore, 1208 Fontheil, are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mrs. Mary Olmeda.

Reverend P. J. McGuinness

Attendants In Pastels
The maid of honor, Miss Donna Dinsmore, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina length gown of pale blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

Miss Floria Olmeda, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Vicki Gilwell, the bridesmaids, wore matching pink bouffant taffeta gowns and carried pink gladioli. The flower girls were Kathy Ann Davis, niece of the bride, and Sandra Correll, niece of the bridegroom. Their blue taffeta dresses were floor length, and they carried small white baskets filled with pink petals.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Duane Dinsmore, brother of the bride, was the best man. The guests were seated by Elmer Ellsworth; and the guest register was handled by Mrs. William Davis, sister of the bride.

THEME OF FESTIVITIES

Polka dots were the theme of the recent meeting of the Eta Kappa chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha at the home of Mrs. Florence Pfeffer, 16621 Faysmith ave. Each member wore polka dotted outfits; and a polka dot cake was served. Pacific State hospital in Spades City was chosen as the first philanthropic project for the coming year. The group will foster a retarded person.

Members and guests present were: Mrs. Audrey Herring, president, Helen Dorsey, Shirley Phillips, Pat Stamm, Helen Leichtweis, Annece Davis, Dorothy Zesiger, June White, Blanche Angus, Dorothy Hall and Irene Slap.

Reception at YWCA
The reception was held at the YWCA immediately following the wedding. There was a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with ribbons and lilies of the valley.

The couple left for a honeymoon at Carmel. Upon their return they will reside in Los Angeles.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Narbonne High School.
